Supplemental Information of the Organization

Independent coordination company. Appointed by Minister of Infrastructure for airport coordination at Sydney. We support the growing needs of the aviation industry across the Asia Pacific region by providing efficient, reliable and transparent coordination services.

ACL Asia Pacific is a subsidiary of ACL the world's leading independent airport slot coordinator. Founded in 1991, ACL operates in 12 countries serving nearly 80 airports. Around five million aircraft movements are successfully coordinated or facilitated by ACL each year, carrying over 700 million passengers. The company has offices in London, Dubai, Auckland and Sydney.
